The Coolest Thing I Most Want to Pinch

After a retrobulbar injection, it is common to apply gentle pressure to the eye.

Notice that he left his shoes outside the OR, as did I.

There is so much style here. Everyone decorates everything.

THE BIGGEST QUESTION I LEFT UNASKED IN THE PREOP HOLDING AREA:

THE COOLEST NEW TECHNIQUE LEARNED TODAY: HOW TO APPLY A PRESSURE PATCH THAT STAYS ON

SURGERY

Mrs P, a 75 yo woman with 2+ NS cataract in her left eye and 6/12 acuity in her RE (post IOL) had SICS surgery with me yesterday (OK, me and my mentor, Suganya). It went well.

Tomorrow: Interview with Thulsi

Hope all is well with you all,

Joe
